C-02

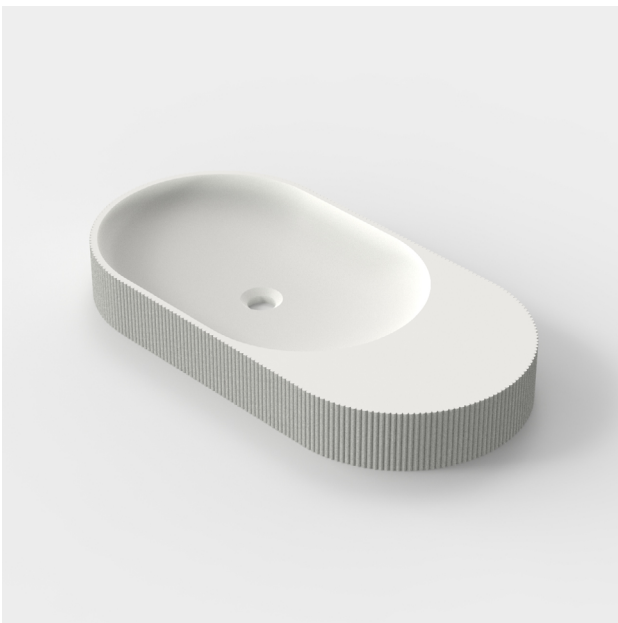

C-02

The Roman Circus was undoubtedly one of the most important facilities in Roman cities.

This Circus is as well as C-02 also inspired by the Greek hippodromes and stadiums.

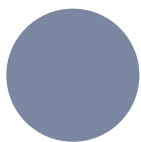

Following the design line of SIMBIOSIS, but with larger dimensions than C-01, it is a bathroom piece thought for large spaces where a product of these measurements can be proudly displayed.

Like the classical constructions, C-02 is a very elongated piece with circular finishes at the ends, having an overall oval shape.
